Fayette County Ss

Personally Appeared before me the Subscriber Hugh Glenn Who being Sworn According ~~Aus~~ to Law Deposeth and Saith that he was in the Service of the United ~~of the the~~ States Seven Years & one Month that he Inlisted in the Eighth Pennsylvania Battalion Commanded by Colonel McCay & that when he was Discharged it was by General Irvin at Fort ~~Pitt~~ that he Gave his Pocket Book to his Daughter ~~Pitt~~ that his Discharge was in Said Book — & that his Daughter, told him that his Pocket Book was Taken out of her Chest — He further Saith that he never Sold nor barter'd Said Discharge to Any person Whatever.

Hugh Glenn This mark

Sworn & Subscribed this 7th Day of November 1792

John Allen

Fayette County Ss

Jean Jobb being Lawfully Sworn Saith that her father Hugh Glenn gave to her his Pocket book with a Nuber of Papers in it & that Said Pocket book was taken out of her Chest & that She Doth not know by whom

Sworn & Subscribed this 7th of November 1792

John Allen Jean Jobb her mark

John Glenn Enid.

Received April 10th 1797
of Robert Ross
J. Smith

Donation Land

— POOR COPY —

[signature] DIRECTOR, Bureau of Land Records.