M.B. Thomas Taylor & David Hudson owners & occupiers

Draught of a tract of land situate in Fannet-Township Franklin County, containing one hundred and thirty six acres 10 perches & allowance of six per cent for roads &c located in pursuance of a contract with the Board of Property for carrying into effect the several Acts of Assembly relating to unpatented lands under proprietary rights &c. and by virtue of a warrant dated 3d June 1762 granted to James Elder for 50 acres "joining Felix Doyle and Hugh Herran in Fannet-township" ascertained on premises 27 October 1829. & returned agreeable to a recent survey of the land.

To Jacob Spangler, Esq.r Surveyor General } J. Elder; not Patd } Wm S. Davis, William Hamilton } Contractors

Report-The above tract has been appropriated by a warrant granted James Elder dated 16 April 1763 as purported in list No. 1 of unpatented lands query as to a warrant of the 16 April 1763 being granted to James Elder, as the survey in D. Surveyors office does not purport to be made on any warrant. Note- No doubt the warrant of 1762 was intended for a part of the above land some doubts might arise whether the sd warrant was intended to cover the whole of the tract. Not being certain of a warrant of the 16 April 1763 having issued; I have thought best to return the whole of the tract on the warrant of 1762.
