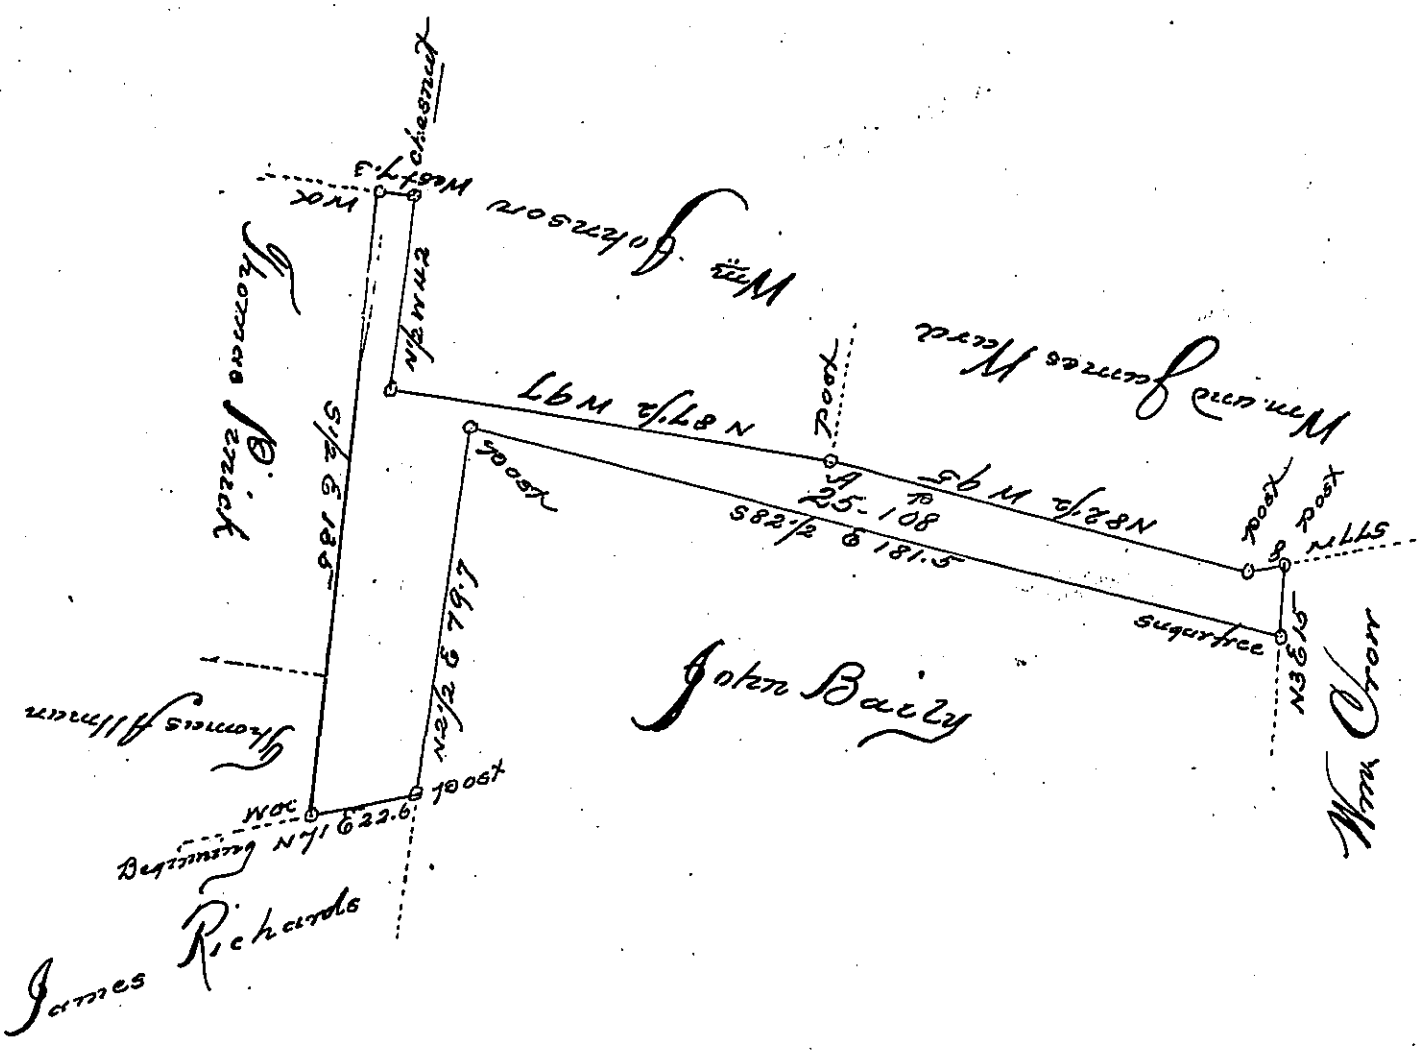
FORM No. I.



The above is a Draught of a Survey made August 10th 1826 in pursuance of a warrant granted to Jacob Pony, for Two acres of land, Dated July 1st 1826, but contains Twenty-five acres, and 108 perches, and allowance of six per Cent for highways situate in the Townships of Fallowfield and Pike Run, W. County. At the time of survey Jacob Pinick said he built a house and cleared a field on the above land in the year 1799, he said he had no office title, but claimed by improvement right. The house is gone but the foundation is to be seen, and around it there is the appearance of an acre or two having been cleared but not tilled for many years.
