Situate on a small run of Georgas Creek in Georgestownship Fayette County & surveyed the 10th day of × × × × in pursuance of a Warrant in the name of John Walters dated the 1st day of April, 1793

To Gabriel Heister Esq } pr.
Surveyor General

J. Lewis D.S.

There is a log house, barn, orchard about 100 acres cleared, and John Mincks & family are residing on this part. Mincks claims the 31½ as pr Warrant of —— 17. Feby. 1829. It is said there was a private survey made embracing the whole as represented for a Tony Trish who once claims the right of Walters but a public survey upon Walters Warrant was never made that I can learn, untill the above. Mincks now claims the whole tract by purchase of ——
