

A Draught of two hundred and seventy three acres and seventy six perches of land with six per cent for roads situate in Ferranagh township in Keifflin (formerly Cumberland) county surveyed in pursuance of an order of survey to William Cochran dated 4th November AD 1766 numbered 1805 & resurveyed 30th January 1811. Note the date of the original survey is not on the original draught, altho it is official and appears very old.
