*To Jacob Spangler Esquire }
Surv. Gen.*

John Bennet D.S.

N.B. Stephen Arnold was the first settler and improver upon the above described land, and settled on said land A.D. 1792 and in the year 1793 or in the Spring of 1794 James Paul and John Watson was surveyed. Arnold informed me that he did not clear over the lines of James Paul untill after the lines of said tract was run and marked. Arnold never had any lines marked upon the ground to which he claimed untill they were run in pursuance of his warrant, which lines were run as he wished.

The lines edg^d with green are lines of older surveys. The lines edg^d with lake are the lines claimed by Arnold. And the piece shaded yellow, is clear from older surveys
