

Sir-

Enclosed is a draught of a Survey made by my Brother Moses when connected with me in the district- said not to be found in your Office I have copied it from Entry Book A page 200 as it there stands. I have left a blank for the day, in Conformity to the Entry- and recovering to my Brother Notes I find it is not there supplied- He has entered on his Notes on Fryday—September 1770. Surveyed for Philip Smith- It is posable it has not been Returned- the short notice I have had will not admit of examining the lists- therefore To prevent desappointment I have sent a Copy.

I am Sir With perfect esteem your most Ob^d

Samuel Cochran Esquire
Surveyor General

Alexander M^cClean Deputy
