

The Draught of a Tract of Land called The Dutch Valley scituate on the head of Cokelamus Creek in the County of Cumberland containing Three hundred and twenty nine acres and twenty three perches with the usual allowance of six acres p Cent for roads surveyed the seventeenth day of July Anno Dom 1765 for John Fawt in pursuance of a Warrant from the honourable the Proprietaries bearing date at Philadelphia the 3rd day of February Anno Dom. 1765

D^W Maclay Dept^y Surr^t

To John Lukens Esq^t Surr^t Gen^l of the Province of Pennsylvania.

In the above survey followed the old lines made by late John Armstrong in some places. but as they seemed irregular took no pains to make the Resurvey exact. -- But am satisfied that the former survey was equal in Quantity to that now returned.

IN TESTIMONY that the above is a copy of the original remaining on file in the Department of Internal Affairs of Pennsylvania, made comformably to an Act of Assembly approved the 16th day of February 1833, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of said Department to be affixed at Harrisburg, this tenth day of August 1907

Henry Howard

Secretary of Internal Affairs.
