

From Documents which have been submitted to me I have no doubt that John Wane was enlisted in Col. Brocton's Regiment of Artillery to serve during the War, & to the best of my recollection, I discharged him as Commandant at Fort Pitt in the year 1783, in September, but as I have not lately seen the man, to identify his person I can not certify more positively, than that a certain John Wane was discharged by me - Wm Irvine
