

Dear Sir

I have had no favourable tuncdy of Lending to you for my Pattan. since I seen you. I had sent a letter to you that if Mr. Barnabas Sherry would write to you to send it to him, but as I have had no account from him since I apprehend he has not applied to you. I have now a very favourable opportunity by the beaver George Quilley my step son who will ^{pull} on you for the purpose of getting it his receipt for the same shall be good against me. you will much oblige me by sending it forward my family is all well My wife has her kind respects to you and yours I remain Dear Sir
