

Came before me, the subscriber one of the Aldermen of the City of Philadelphia Alexander Power. Broker and did make Oath that he applied to Genl. Daniel Broadhead Esq^r — Surveyor Genl. Officially and personally for the completion of the Donation Land Lottery for the Pennsylv^a. and respecting all the Rights for said Lands that he had purchased and contracted for to and with John Nicholson and Chas^r Biddle Esq^s — and others and that he also applied to the Governor, to the Attorney Genl. to the Secretary of the Land Office to the Treasurer Genl. for and in Order to Obtain Patents for Donation Lands all before the 1st Day of April last

Sworn before me
July 3rd 1794 —

Hilary Baker, one of the Aldermen of Philadelphia

Alex^r Power