

Whereas two Patents for donation land have been granted to us by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania dated the twenty ninth day of July, one thousand seven hundred and ninety five, in right of John McAllister and John Moyer, late privates in the Army of the United States, by virtue of sundry Assignments, which may hereafter be disputed - therefore for the more perfect security of the Commonwealth we hold our-selves our Heirs Executors and Administrators accountable to the parties so claiming and to indemnify the Commonwealth in the Premises - and also to execute such further or other obligation of this kind and for this purpose as shall hereafter be reasonably required.

Given under our hands and seals this twenty ninth day of July, one thousand seven hundred and ninety five.
