Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
Butler County S. S.

Before me, one of the Justices of the peace in and for the County aforesaid personally came Thomas Seston and Robert Seston, two disinterested witnesses and being sworn according to law, do depose and say that to their certain knowledge, the land described in the above application was first improved in June 29th A.D. 1837, and not before, and that John Seston did improve the same, and erected a habitation thereon, suitable for the habitation of man.
