

Loving friend Benj. Eastburn I have been informed that the Tract unto which I have joined the Survey for Francis Allison contains in breadth 105 perches & is in length 200 but measuring the breadth thereof att<sup>y</sup> Request of y<sup>e</sup> s<sup>r</sup> Allison (he having bought it) I could not make any more of it than 88<sup>p</sup> from y<sup>e</sup> Hickory to y<sup>e</sup> Cle. at the End joining will<sup>m</sup> Wilson's but att<sup>y</sup> opposite End could not att<sup>y</sup> any certain bounds or corners have therefore allowed 241 perches & made y<sup>e</sup> New Survey accordingly I suspect an alteration on that side joining Robert Flinn's 900 acre Tract for the Run Northeast from a particular tree which Robert Flinn told me was a line tree of his Tract joining ye lands above Described it would lead through a cleared field of Flinn's & fall to ye E.ward of that Hickory ~~which~~ it is not impossible to cut down one tree & mark another my fees for Survey not paid B.E.

The measure is very correct or I should not have made [this] Distance without further Information of them the only Disagreement I should Gladly Rectify if at y<sup>e</sup> head distance from this
 J.C.
