

August 18th 1859.

Surveyed the above described Tract of Land in Pursuance of a Warrant Granted to Arthur Ho Gough bearing date the 27 day of July A.D. 1859. Situate on the Chestnut Ridge in Unity township Westmoreland County Penna. Containing two hundred eighteen acres and eight perches at the usual allowance of six per cent for Roads &c

To John Roove Esquire }
Surveyor Genl. of Penna }

George Hoeschling C. D.

(Note.) All the land embraced in the above survey is unimproved, and for many years claimed by John Graff who has long since departed this life, but in his life time had an improvement made on the west end of part of the same land, and continued a tenant on it and cleared a quantity of land around the house, one of the sons of said deceased William Graff claimed this land by virtue of said improvement. About five years since he sold all the improvement with some timber land to four different persons, and made deed to some of them, the several lots were all regularly surveyed off with lines and corners made, all running through timber land, and including timber land in each lot, for Ho Gough by this operation concluded that Graff had defined his boundary by his lines, takes out his warrant for the residue of the unimproved land, and lays it out the same as above respecting all Graff's sales but one to Peter Housick of near 100 of wood land which is taken in the above survey, the sale & deed thereof was made to Housick last spring. This statement I believe to be truly correct &c
