

This Island or sand Bar called Port Royal appears to have been in the possession of John Culp & Co for a number of years occupied as a fishing place there appears to have been a Wharf erected thereon for the purpose of drawing in their Net by which means the Island or Bar seems to have been formed.

William Wolf claims a right of Fishing under Frederick Bicking by reason of him and Co Occupying the Waters on the West side thereof as a fishery but I do not understand that they occupied the Bar
