I Certify that from the Survey book of my predecessor it appears that the above described piece of land was Surveyed in a larger tract to George Wattles, assignee of Asa White Jr. on the 18th day of March 1828. It further appears from certain title papers in the possession of Amos Williams, the applicant, that the interest and claim of George Wattles in the above described piece of land was duly transferred to said Amos Williams, by virtue of which transfer the land has been Surveyed to him.
