

Sir

The Secretary informs as from you that the Deputies in the County are very remiss in sending their (Copies) of Surveys to the Office after they have made them and been paid for them to the great disappointment of the People when they come to town to take out their Patents. I therefore desire you will immediately write to all the Deputies and let them know that unless they make due Return of their Draughts of Survey their bonds shall actually be put in suit

To John Lukens Esq;
