

Margaret Henderson's
Deposition

Donation Land

Samuel Henderson

Wiggin County, Pa.

Personally came before me the Subscriber one of the Commissioners of Pennsylvania, Justice of the Peace James Ardman and being sworn as follows, Deponent and saith that he the deponent was well acquainted with Samuel Henderson and his family and that they lived in Cumberland County (now Wiggin County) Millford Township and State of Pennsylvania, and that the De Samuel Henderson settled and went to the Army under Capt. Wm Cox in the year 1777, and that he has never since returned to his family who lived in the Neighborhood with this deponent. And as he this deponent believ^e and it was always understood and believed by his family and in the Neighborhood generally that he died in the Army, and Deponent further saith that all the family that the De Samuel Henderson had was his Widow Margaret, his son Thomas who is the oldest child and his daughter Margaret, being the only two children that is now living belonging to the De Samuel Henderson —
