Personally came before me the Subscriber one of the Justices of the Peace for said County, John Brown and on his solemn Oath taken according to Law doth say, that he this deponent in Year one thousand seven hundred and twenty seven first became acquainted with Daniel Newnham, as his fellow Soldier in Colonel Thomas Hartley's Regiment, and further this deponent said that he this deponent was Indicted for the Term of Three Years, but that the said Daniel Newnham was Indicted for and During the War. and at the time of Deponents Discharge said Daniel Newnham got a furlough to come to York to see his Wife, and Deponent further saith that at the time he was Discharged he and Daniel Newnham came to York. he then became acquainted with his Wife and family at which <sup>time</sup> he knew that he the said Daniel Newnham had a son called Henry Newnham by his said Wife, with whom Deponent saith he was acquainted ever since, and further saith that he knew the said Henry Newnham to true his Apprenticeship with Christian Heickadorn Weaver in the Town of York, further saith not, but that he Dual in the said Sworn to and subscribed the 27th day of January A.D. 1803
 Before John Forsyth
