Donation Land

1786 Oct 31 Andrew Colm & Samuel Annis

Ens Singleton
order

who were employed in the selection of the certificates on the draw of the lots. Each man was allowed during that day. Each morning about two o'clock the drummers were ordered to the platform. When and there remained until the drawing was finished. Then the whole company marched off the ground in the following order. Major Johnson with an umbrella over his head, Capt. Johnson with a drawn sword in his right hand, Capt. Ogden with a cane, and the rest of the company two and two following after the drummers. Arrived at the platform they halted, and the drummers beat a roll, when Major Johnson, Capt. Ogden and the rest of the company marched round the platform, when the drummers beat a roll, and the whole company marched off the ground in the following order