

MG-211

Richmond Ladies Soldiers Aid Society, Mansfield, Penna., 1861 (1861-64), 1866, 1897, n.d.

5 folders

Records of the Society including correspondence of Sarah E. Morris (Mrs. Jos. P. Morris), Secretary of the Society and Associate Manager of the Women's Pennsylvania Branch of the U.S. Sanitary Commission (appointed in 1863). The correspondence contains a letter from Mrs. Morris to D. L. Dix, n.d.; a letter from D. L. Dix, Surgeon General's Office, Washington, D.C. to Mrs. Morris, April 1863; and envelope with D.L.D.'s seal (Dorothea Lynde Dix (b. 1802, d. 1887) was Superintendent of Women Nurses under the Surgeon General during the Civil War.)

- a. Minute Book, 1861-64 1 vol. 1 folder
- b. Report, Oct. 28, 1863 1 item 1 folder
- c. Correspondence, 1863-65, 1866, 1897, n.d. 1 folder
- d. Lists of Contributions, 1863-64, n.d. 1 folder
- e. The United States Sanitary Commission,
Boston: Little, Brown and Co., 1863
1 vol. (hardcover, 299 pages) 1 folder

Gift: Louise Lyon Thompson
Mansfield, Penna.
April, 1972