

Sir

With respect to the situation of this land I know nothing about it, and all I can of it is that I am well convinced, it is an invariable Rule with Presby. Never to take any more Land than is called for in the Warrant Unless it is entirely Vacant and not Claimed

By any Person
20th Feby 1790

John Nevill

William Boyce

235 Ac<sup>s</sup>
Washington

Rec<sup>d</sup>. Dec. 4th March 1790