

Survey'd the 29th of the 11th mo. N.S. 1752 In pursuance of a Warrant date the 21st of May foregoing, the warrant was for 50 more or less w^{ch} quantity is not to be found without a very greivous dispute with one Robert Turner, I was hard set to get his 25^d for Ulrick Overly without a Barrel I believe he must be contented wth it (as he does not live on the Land but takes it up, on the account of Timber) Tho' perhaps we may insist on his quantity; it will injure the said Turner's place.
