

A draught of part of a tract of land in Washington Township Erie County surveyed the 16th day of February 1839 for Nathanial Etheriges heirs, by virtue of the actual settlement residence and improvement of James Culbertson containing 24 acres and 125 perches and six percent allowance for Roads &c protracted from a scale of 50 perches to an inch

D. Skinner D.S.

I Certify the foregoing is a true Return of Survey with the field notes annexed made and entered in the Survey Book for the County of Erie. And it does not appear that the land therein described is claimed by anyone except the heirs of Nathanial Etherige aforesaid.

To John Taylor Esquire }
Surveyor General }
