In pursuance of the above mentioned Order of the Board. I proceeded the day of the date of the above Survey to execute the above Application of Culbertson's as well as that of Hugh Maguire; N^o 411. of the 6th of August 1765:
 but found Maguire's (now Samuel Styles's) claim to be founded on and owing to a Survey made October 10th 1765 by Benjamin Parvin Esq^r which Survey proved to be erroneous; it including 13 3/4 acres (as above represented) of Hugh Thompson's Survey made in pursuance of his Warrant dated 27th March A. D. 1751. Of consequence Styles's claim is void: there being no land to fill his Application

Yours with respect

Ja. Windman D.S.

To the Honourable Board &c

N. B. I can find no ^{other} claim to the above ~~the~~ described premises by any person
