

A Draught of a tract of Land Situate in Shrewsbury township York County Surveyed in Pursuance of a Warrant ^{granted Francis Smith} for 100 ^{acres} dated the 12th of April 1763 Surveyed the 10th of the 10th mo. 1764
 To Jno. Lukens Surv^r Gen^l

p^o Wm. Matthews D.S.

A B this is the Land in dispute between Wm. Gemmill and Jno. Smith when I Surveyed the Land Jno. Smith thought he had the right to it and included a great Deal of his improvements and all David Smiths in the part marked A and on the part marked B Francis Smith had made a small Improvement which however were all included in the one Survey at that time and not the least dispute about as I heard, but Jno. Smith when he understood what quantity was in the Survey more than the Warrant was for requested me not to return it until I heard further from him for he Intended he said to get an Additional Warrant as soon as the Office opened and in that situation it Lay until the dispute arose more than a Year after
