

Beginning at a Common White Oak of Thomas Morton's and James Park's Land, standing on a Bank about 10 p^t Northward of a spring head.

As Joseph Smith told me he intended to Purchase the above described 100^a of Joseph Haines & so include the whole in one Patent. I was not curious in trying exactly how it lay with Respect to this Survey, neither could we find one of the corners of it they being marked so long ago & never since Renewed; but the above Representation does not differ far from the Truth
