

The above is a draught of a tract of land, situate on the waters of Raccoon creek in Smith township, Washington County; containing one hundred and ninety four acres, and eighty eight perches with the usual allowance for roads, Surveyed March 1st 1819, for William and Isaac Donaldson, in pursuance of a Warrant granted John Fergus, dated the 19th day of August 1785

James Reed D. S.

Jacob Spangler Esq. S. G.

P.S. This land has been improved for more than twenty years, and a constant resident settlement kept up ever since. I have heard of no adverse claim whatever.
