By the Commissioners of Property

Whereas Isaac Norris hath made it appear to us that there is a deficiency of one and twenty acres of land in the several quantities of Liberty land contained within the tract where he dwells and thereupon desires that the same may be laid out to him.

These are therefore to authorize and require thee to survey or cause to be survey'd unto the said Isaac Norris in the Liberties of Philadelphia where the same may be found vacant the said one & twenty acres of land and make returns thereof into the Secretarys office in order for the completing of his several rights.

Given under our hands and the lesser Seal of the Province at Philadelphia the 20th day of the eleventh month Anno Dir 1726
