These two Surveys were made by John Churchman about the Year 1738, but could not be fully perfected on account of a large Tract of land under a Maryland patent, the Bounds of which were not perfectly known at that time; but have been lately ascertained; whereupon most of the Lines of these Surveys, (at the Request of the Owners) have been try'd afresh & this Draught & Return of both containing together 475⁰ & the allowance of 6⁰ 33° Cent. is made by Geo Churchman.

The whole belongs to Mr. Smith & is situate on the Branches of Seven near Elk River in East Nottingham Township, Chester County Laid down by a Scale of 80 to an inch the 15th of ye 2nd mo, 1765.
