Situates on Roaring Run, a branch of Saltilch Creek, part in Donigal township, Westmoreland; and part in Salthick township, Fayette County. Surveyed the 14th day of April 1831. In pursuance of a Warrant in the name of Martin Shilater for 200 acres dated the 6th day of September 1795.

To Jacob Spangler, Esq.
Surveyor General.

This tract was first improved about 50 years ago, there is about 20 acres of land cleared on which grain has been raised, the remains of an old Furnace & Grist mill, also two dwelling houses in which two families are residing.
