

Personally came before me Geo. H. Hall one of the Clerks of the Court of the peace in and for the County of Jefferson, State of Kentucky John Weaver a Sergeant in the late Continental Army of the late John Hales Esquire, Chief Justice of the County of Jefferson, after my order that I should call upon Porter Thompson one of the Clerks of the Court that he never had any authority to assign to any person the name Whiteville nor that he never saw any person that had any right whatever to the lands belonging to him or his heirs in the Western part of the County of Jefferson, State of Kentucky 1794

Geo. H. Hall

Received of James Robinson - the Application of John Bowers Esquire for his donation lands with his discharge from the army, and an affidavit of his absence from 1784 to 1794 - which I have read & agreeably to the last Act of Assembly for granting Donations &c. made May 21st 1795
