

In the Name of God Amen a George Colman Organist in London

An new sworn Company in the City of London and Dispensing, mending and Memory, shall be thought God for the same so make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following (that is to say) first I allow that I shall be buried in a Christian like age. Second I allow and that all my just debts and funeral charges be paid out of the Day a Comony to me for my share in the Company of the City of London and

Request to my friend William show My new coat of Arms my jacket and a watch of Gold more my new watch upon three new silver and a pair of fine Golden Watches in paying for the making of the watch such give and request to my friend William Colman Organist (in which give and request that William Colman Organist pay all my share also give and request that William Colman Organist pay all my share

Comony great portion to him his heirs Executors Administrators and Assigns for ever and lastly I do nominate and appoint my trusty friend Thomas Colman Esquire of Middlesex to be my Executor of this my last will and testament hereby

Respect of I have herewith set my hand and seal the twenty eighth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty three by the above named George Colman take

Geo: Colman

as Witness in the presence of the Testators of us who have herewith subscribed our names

Thomas Hutchinson

Thomas Hutchinson