

York County personally appeared before me one of the Justices of the Peace for said County Alexander Turner and on his solemn oath deposed and says that to the best of his recollection in the year 1777 or the year 1778 he was in Carlisle and saw a John Daily formerly of the State of Maryland and that a manorish of In Coll. Thomas Reg. of and was doing duty as such in the Barracks at Carlisle and I have every reason to believe that John Daily was acknowledged to be a son of the aforesaid John Daily and of opinion that papers named in a deposition this day taken before Andrew Dumbain Esq. respecting the family of ^{My John Daily} and further says that I read and subscribed this. At Test
