Green Acres, Rose Valley Road Homes, Open for Inspection

Green Acres, on Rose Valley rd., near the Springhaven Club, is being officially opened today for public inspection. The exhibition house has been attractively decorated and completely furnished by the interior decorating department of Gimbel Bros. to present to prospective buyers some idea of what furniture and its arrangement can do to make a house a home. The result is altogether pleasing.

This building operation offers five types of ranch-type homes of the more substantial variety, one of which has been completed with five others in course of construction. Eventually there will be 70 or so houses in the development located near Swarthmore.

These Green Acres homes are all-electric, all-masonry, all-on-one-floor masterpieces of convenience. They feature just about everything everybody wants fo rmodern loving. Included among the 22 listed features are: Three bedrooms, two baths (1 with stall shower), dining room, large living room with log-burning fireplace, electric kitchen with breakfast nook, utility room with laundry facilities, garage with extra storage space, attractive breezeway, baseboard radiation heat with oil burner, aluminum sash and many other extras.

The lots are unusually large, averaging 108 feet by 140, or about a third acre. There are sixty feet between houses. They are FHA approved. A public bus line passes the property and commuters can use the Swarthmore trains.

Prices begin at $16,850 and depend upon location and style of house chosen.

The Green Acres development is reached conveniently from Chester by taking Providence rd. to Rose Valley rd., and right on Rose Valley rd. to Green Acres. And from Philadelphia, by taking City Line av. to rt. 320, left on 320 to Yale av. in Swarthmore, right on Yale av. to Green Acres. There are directional arrows on Yale av.

The builder will be on the premises every day to give information.

GOP Gets Tongue Tied in Rochester

Rochester, N. Y. (INS)—There's something about Rochester that gets Republican candidates tongue-tied.

Last year, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, campaigning for the presidency, told a Rochester audience, "I'm glad to be in Syracuse."

Sen. John Foster Dulles (R), N. Y., urged a Rochester audience on Thursday night—not once, but twice—to get out and vote GOP on Nov. 9.

His listeners still intend to go to the polls on Nov. 8, the prescribed date.

GOP Gets Tongue Tied in Rochester

Rochester, N. Y. (INS)—There's something about Rochester that gets Republican candidates tongue-tied.

Last year, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, campaigning for the presidency, told a Rochester audience, "I'm glad to be in Syracuse."

Sen. John Foster Dulles (R), N. Y., urged a Rochester audience on Thursday night—not once, but twice—to get out and vote GOP on Nov. 9.

His listeners still intend to go to the polls on Nov. 8, the prescribed date.

CHRISTMAS TIME

Is the one time in the year when both children and grown-ups spread out on the floor to play with the toys that Santa left. Floors are drafty and can cause sickness. Help eliminate this condition by installing a combination storm and screen door NOW.
