

Hope; Wm. Overfield, supervisor; J. N. Solliday, supervisor; and Thomas L. Wilson, secretary to the Canal Board.

W2-c. 34. DELAWARE DIVISION - Reports and Miscellaneous Documents
1836-1844, Vol. 2

Here are indexed numerous items bearing on appointments, coal shipments, drawbacks, tolls, weigh scales, etc. Outstanding figures are indexed as follows: Supervisor David Connor; Supervisor Joshua B. Colvin; James Clarke, president of the Canal Board; Lewis S. Coryell; J. A. Dunlap; Wm. B. Foster, Jr., engineer; Wm. K. Huffnagle, engineer and supervisor; D. Y. Harman, supervisor; Erskine Hazard, acting manager of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company; Samuel Ingham of New Hope; Supervisor P. Jarrett; David Mitchell, Jr., secretary to the Canal Board; J. Miller, canal commissioner; W. F. Rogers, supervisor; J. VanHorn, collector at Bristol; Josiah White; and C. H. Williams, collector at Easton.

W2-c. 35. DELAWARE DIVISION - Damages, Vol. 2

Items indexed here, in alphabetical order of names of clients, are claims for rather than awards for damages. Names run from Coryell to Rutherford. The designer of the lifting wheels at New Hope, Lewis S. Coryell, enters numerous claims.

W2-c. 36. DELAWARE DIVISION - Damages, Vol. 1

Claims for, rather than awards for, damages are indexed here, names running from Raub through Yardley.

W2-c. 37. DELAWARE DIVISION - Damages, Vol. 3

Claims for, rather than awards for, damages are indexed here, alphabetically, names running from Able through Mellick. A frequent claimant is the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company.