

86. Claim of Wm. Latta, acknowledged by Superintendent Edw. F. Gay, for damage occasioned to his woodland by sparks from a locomotive engine.

135-143. Claim of Friend Isaac C. Jones for quarry land taken from his property by the railroad.

W2-d. 6. COLUMBIA and PHILADELPHIA RAILROAD
Land Damages, etc. I-L, Vol. 2

Among interesting items are:

1. Claim of Jacob P. Jones for damage done to timber by locomotive sparks.

6. Claim of Charles W. Fleming for destruction of cars and their loadings by a collision on the railroad.

7. Claim of James Page against the railroad for illegal use of "the shield of a valve in pumps" to which he claimed the patent rights.

26-29. Claim by Kinny & Nugent, acknowledged by Superintendent Wm. English, for the destruction of their Wadding and Cotton Lap Manufactory in Philadelphia by fire resulting from locomotive engine sparks.

50. Claim of Henry Kinzer for destruction of his property by sparks from the locomotive engine Chester.

W2-d. 7. COLUMBIA and PHILADELPHIA RAILROAD
Land Damage Claims, etc. M-O, Vol. 1

Among items here are: