

September 29th 1802.

James Maxwell (late a Soldier in the Pennsylvania Lines) enters a caveat against the issuing of a Patent to Alex^r Turner, Esq; or to any other person claiming under him for a Donation Tract of 200⁰⁰ of Acres, to which he is entitled as a Soldier aforesaid - alleging that the said Alexander Turner, nor no person under him, have any just right to the same; and that the Decree now in the Lands Office was deceptively, underhandedly and fraudulently obtained from the said James Maxwell.

And^o Ellicott, S. L. O.

Lands Office, September, 29th 1802.

The first Monday in December next is hereby appointed for a hearing of the parties on the above caveat, thirty days previous Notice being given. —

And^o Ellicott, Sept^r 29th 1802.

