

Huntingdon County

Population 1857 69
 Area in square miles 550 1/2
 Value of the land $1,000,000
 Value of the improvements $1,000,000

The soil is of a good quality and amounts to 200,000 acres. It is a fine red soil, and is well adapted for the raising of corn, wheat, and other crops. The climate is healthy and pleasant, and the water is pure and soft.

The Tennessee River is a fine river, and is well adapted for navigation. It is about 100 miles long, and is the largest river in the State. The water is pure and soft, and is well adapted for drinking.

The Clinch River is a fine river, and is well adapted for navigation. It is about 50 miles long, and is the largest river in the county. The water is pure and soft, and is well adapted for drinking.

The French Broad River is a fine river, and is well adapted for navigation. It is about 50 miles long, and is the largest river in the county. The water is pure and soft, and is well adapted for drinking.

The county is well watered, and is well adapted for agriculture. It is a fine soil, and is well adapted for the raising of corn, wheat, and other crops. The climate is healthy and pleasant, and the water is pure and soft.

Characterized in delineating Towns &
 Scale
 1 inch = 1 mile

A MAP OF
 HUNTINGDON COUNTY

under the provisions of an Act of the Legislature Passed at Nashville, June 2, 1816
 by J. H. WOOD

M I F F L I N COUNTY

FRANKLIN COUNTY

CUMBERLAND COUNTY

WATKINS COUNTY

TENNESSEE