

W2-g. 13. BEAVER DIVISION - Contracts:
Miscellaneous

Here, the title is too general; contracts definitely embrace, among other canal features, bridges, tow path bridges, and locks. The index is according to the names of contractors.

The contracts are of the era of Superintendents John Dickey and Samuel Power, 1831 - 1834.

- 3- 6. A new bridge over the Shenango at New Castle, with its two abutments
- 7- 31. Various contracts: sections, supply of labor, etc.
- 32- 98. Bridges and tow path bridges, 1831 - 1840
- 99-134. Locks, contracted for in 1831 by Superintendent Dickey

W2-g. 14. BEAVER DIVISION - Reports and Miscellaneous Documents
Vol. 1

Items here pertain generally to the location and the construction of the division, with 24-27, 43, 46, 89, 108, and 120-127 presenting petitions.

Outstanding correspondents and canal officials indexed are B. Chew, Jr., attorney in fact for B. Chew, Esq.; John Dickey, superintendent; John English, toll collector at Bridgewater; Canal Commissioners Abner Lacock and John Mitchell; Joseph Pollock, supervisor; Samuel