

W2-i. 1. WEST BRANCH DIVISION - Contractors for Relief

Here, indexed from Barrett, C. R. through Wood & Shoemaker, are contractors making appeal for relief for various causes.

In item 116 is the comment of Principal Engineer James D. Harris, 23 March 1836, on an appeal of Cameron, Coryell & Bergstresser.

W2-i. 2. WEST BRANCH DIVISION - Releases and Damage Compensation

Here, indexed from Anthony, J. B. through Winchester, S., uncalendared, but running from 1831 into the 1840's, are the releases of property-holders and the acknowledgments of divers claimants for services or materials furnished.

Commentators from time to time are figures such as Geo. Crawford, Supervisor J. F. Hackenburg, Superintendent Wm. B. Mitchell, and Superintendent Wm. F. Packer.

W2-i. 3. WEST BRANCH DIVISION - Reports and Miscellaneous Documents
1829 -
Vol. 1

Items here bear on complaints, petitions, and reports.

Outstanding among correspondents are J. P. Bull, superintendent on the North Branch; Robert Faries, principal engineer; Thos. Folmer, supervisor; James D. Harris, principal engineer; Joseph Hogendobler, supervisor; Andrew McReynolds, superintendent; Wm. B. Mitchell, superintendent; Wm. F. Packer, superintendent (subsequently governor of