

Pennsylvania); W. Rodrigue, assistant engineer; and Josiah White, eminent board member of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company.

W2-i. 4. WEST BRANCH DIVISION - Reports and Miscellaneous Documents
1829 -
Vol. 2

Here, several items bear upon petitions and reports.

Among correspondents are Benjamin Aycrigg, principal engineer on the Sinnemahoning Extension Canal; Thomas Bennett, supervisor; Thomas Burnside, president, Bald Eagle and Spring Creek Navigation Company; Geo. Crawford, late supervisor; Geo. Crane, supervisor; Wm. B. Foster, Jr., engineer; Robt. Faries, principal engineer; Abbot Green of Lewisburg; J. P. Hackenberg, supervisor; James D. Harris, principal engineer; B. P. Kephart, collector at Lock Haven; Wm. B. Mitchell, superintendent; John Mitchell, former canal commissioner; Wm. E. Morris, assistant engineer, later principal engineer on the Western Division; Thomas Maxwell, supervisor; W. R. Power, collector at Williamsport; and Thomas L. Wilson, secretary to the Canal Board.

W2-i. 5. WEST BRANCH DIVISION - Reports and Miscellaneous Documents
1829 -
Vol. 3

Here, many items consist of petitions; a few consist of reports.

Among outstanding correspondents are Thos. Bennett, supervisor; James Clarke, canal commissioner; Geo. Crane, supervisor; Abbot Green of Lewisburg; Edw. F. Gay, state engineer (1857); P. B. Kephart, collector at Lock Haven; J. B. McMicken, supervisor; Eli Slifer of Lewisburg; and Thos. L. Wilson, secretary to the Canal Board.