

- a. As to the occupancy of canal ground by other parties
  - b. As to the use of water for stationary steam power, etc. by other parties
  - c. As to the use of water from the canal without proper authority for milling purposes
8. T. T. Wierman, chief engineer, May, 1866 to the President and Directors of the Penna. R. R. Co. on the Supreme Court decision in the Haldeman case and on the history of the eight acres and seventy-two perches of land obtained (earlier) by the Commonwealth from the MacLay Estate for the Penna. Canal in Harrisburg
9. Canal Department, Office Copy, to The President and Directors of the Penna. Rail Road Co., Harrisburg - 11 June 1866 -
- A report on several parts of the original Western Division of the Pennsylvania Canal and a recommendation that the one hundred miles of that division be sold to the West Penna. R. R. Company for $100,000
10. T. T. Wierman, chief engineer, Harrisburg, 7 January 1867, to J. Edgar Thomson, Esq., president, Penna. R. R. Co. -