

4. Organization Rules and Regulations for the Government and Operation of the Pennsylvania Canal, including the branches and feeders owned, leased, or operated by the company -

Printed by DeArmond and Goodrich
Philadelphia, 1869

Office copy of Thos. T. Wierman,
Chief Engineer

5. A. J. Whitney, resident engineer,
Harrisburg - 11 December 1875 -

A report on the Juniata Division, with estimates for enlarging locks to 17 by 90 feet and deepening the canal to five feet depth of water, as prepared for General I. J. Wistar, president (manuscript form)

6. A. J. Whitney, resident engineer
Harrisburg - 21 December 1876

Estimates for special repairs and improvements, Juniata Canal, to be made in 1877

7. Certificate, in typewritten form, of action had at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Canal Company on 25 March 1901 -

Looking to the abandonment for public use of "the entire portion of its lines of canal now maintained and operated."