

W2-c. 21. MISCELLANEOUS PAPERS

In this volume, items 1-25 are connected with claims for damages entered by John Roberts, Clerk, in the Dauphin County Court of Quarter Sessions; items 76-130 are connected with petitions for extension of The Pennsylvania Canal to the city of Erie, drawn chiefly in the year 1829, signed by many eminent western Pennsylvanians, and addressed to Commissioners James Clarke, David Scott, and others.

W2-c. 22. MISCELLANEOUS DOCUMENTS

Among divers letters, reports, and petitions here, officials represented are: Superintendent W. S. Colohan, Allegheny Portage Railroad; Briston Clover, New Route to Avoid the Planes on the Allegheny Portage Railroad; Wm. B. Foster, Jr., engineer; and Thomas T. Wierman, Sr., engineer.

W2-c. 23. RESOLUTIONS and REPORTS to the LEGISLATURE and to the GOVERNOR

This volume is miscellaneous in content. It furnishes requests for information from the House and from the Senate, sometimes with, sometimes without, reply.

Topics dealt with, or left undealt with, are bids, contracts, claims, damages, expenditures, engineers, improvements, labor, motive power, repairs, tolls, etc. Among interesting items are:

21. Supt. James Cameron, Columbia and Philadelphia Railroad, to President James Clarke, 14 May 1839, on tolls collected on that railroad.
