

W2-c. 25. RESOLUTIONS and REPORTS to the LEGISLATURE and GOVERNOR

Inquiries with or without answers. Topics include aqueducts, basins, bridges, claims, the Erie Extension Canal, the incorporation of railroad companies and the question of whether such incorporation may be prejudicial to the interests of The Pennsylvania Canal, labor, motive power, the appointment of canal officials, passes, repairs, revenues, tolls, trucks, transportation, vacating the Canal at Pittsburgh, and weighmasters.

W2-c. 26. DELAWARE DIVISION

Bristol Collector's Office: Register of empty boats ascending from the port of Bristol, March - October 1839

Here are Nos. 1-2113 of boat masters' signed certifications of the emptiness of their boats and of the payments of their fees ($1.50)

W2-c. 27. DELAWARE DIVISION

Contracts; Sections: Here are indexed the names of contractors with Superintendent Thomas G. Kennedy "to dig, embank, puddle, and construct, in a substantial and workmanlike manner, all that part ... known and designated as the ---th section, etc." 1828

W2-c. 28. DELAWARE DIVISION

Contracts, Fences, Aqueducts, etc.: This volume indexes contractors agreeing with Superintendent Thomas G. Kennedy or with numerous ones of his successors, from 1828 to 1855, to build aqueducts, bridges, road bridges, farm bridges, locks, guard locks, waste weirs, etc. and presents, in brief, the history of the construction and the reconstruction of the Delaware Division Canal.