

- 5, 6, 8. A fire-proof house for locomotives at the head of the Schuylkill Inclined Plane and for workshops
9. A weighmaster's house near the inclined plane at Columbia
11. An engine house for the stationary engine
at Columbia
- 13, 14. A depot and workshops for the use of locomotive engines at Parkesburg
15. A depot at the intersection of the Harrisburg Turnpike and the railroad
16. A boat slip for the head of the canal basin
at Columbia
17. A depot at the canal basin at Columbia
20. An addition to the collector's house at Fairmount
21. A weighhouse at Lancaster
22. An enlargement of the Parkesburg shops
23. A water house at the Spread Eagle Station
24. Improvements and repairs at the Schuylkill Inclined Plane, including, among others,
"Closets in Telegraph House, ten dollars"
(1 September 1835)
25. A collector's office near the junction of Vine and Broad Streets, Philadelphia (12 June 1837)