

will send.

There are Books in which the names and

Pages of the certificates given to the said Officers and Quarters are entered for their Pay & Disposition of their Pay, and if their names were entered alphabetically it would be more convenient to enter the names with every of the entries are made numerically, so that each

The number of the certificate it would be a of great time and labour to find it, the entries are so extremely numerous.

Mr. Deane has been applying to the the said Secretary Department for a Certificate of Order Book having been a private in the army from our Pay-Books there filed. I am Sir, Dear

James Blackall Esq.

Secretary of the East-India to the right honourable your most obedient 28 Jan 1734