BE it Known, that on the day of the Date hereof, before me the subscriber one of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Vespaso State of New Jersey Personally came the above named William Rouse and acknowledged the above Deed, Poll and Letter of Attorney to be his Act and Deed.
In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal the (Seal) Sixth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Ninety four

And, Linnell

See -
*You may remember in the Spring of the year 1798 I made out and gave you, a return of the names of a number of the soldiers who had been under the command of Capt Thomas Rodger of North County, and who were entitled to land, and amongst that number was a certain Lewis Rouse who belonged to the said company. - I inform him that his name, was entered before the times limited was expired, and I expected he would get his land by this day, and I supposed the deed was ready for him. - He therefore, now wishes to be informed of the situation, and circumstances relating thereto, and if an order would be sufficient to obtain the same. - A line from you (if you please) either to said Rouse or myself on the subject will be thankfully received, and esteemed as a particular favor by Sir your old acquaintance, and my friend
